PROFILE

I am Ramesha Waseem-ul-Haq, a web developer and a student at Aptech Garden Center and Saylani Mass IT. I have experience in both frontend and backend development, enabling me to create complete and functional web solutions. My goal is to continue enhancing my skills and contribute to innovative projects in the future, Insha'Allah.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Worked on multiple remote-based projects, collaborating with clients and teams across different domains and skill sets.

Showcased a variety of self-developed projects, available for review through the links to my Portfolio, LinkedIn, and GitHub.
